

they reach down to the low-income groups in this society and cut their health care. It seems to me that if you are going to start by cutting health care benefits anywhere, we ought to start right on this floor, with the people who work here.

FREEDOM IS WINNING, TERRORISM IS LOSING IN IRAQ

(Mr. PENCE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PENCE. Mr. Speaker, it has been asked in some shrill tones this morning on the floor of this Congress, 2,000 American casualties in Iraq, and what do we have to show for it?

Well, I would offer very humbly, what we have to show for it is a dictator behind bars, a terrorist haven vanquished, 100,000 Iraqis in uniform with another 100,000 yet being trained in the next year, millions freed from tyranny, national elections in January, and, as the headlines today attest, a constitution ratified in a new, free, and democratic Iraq. That is what we have to show for it.

Because of the ongoing sacrifices of the American soldier, those at their post and those in glory, and their families, freedom is winning, terrorism is losing in Iraq.

CAPTAIN JAMES R. JONES

(Ms. FOXX asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. FOXX. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Vietnam War hero Captain James R. Jones, who gave his life for his country. This past weekend, I had the pleasure to award the late Captain Jones the Purple Heart for his bravery and courage.

Captain Jones was an extraordinary man. Born in Surry County, North Carolina, in 1939 to Buster and Myrtle Jones, Captain Jones received degrees with honor from J.J. Jones High School in Mount Airy, A&T College in Greensboro, and a dentistry degree from Howard University. Upon his graduation in 1964, he was commissioned as a captain under the ROTC program and subsequently entered military service.

In 1967, he was assigned to a small dental clinic at an outlying base in Vietnam. Sadly, his care would never be received. The aircraft he was on board crashed soon after takeoff and caught fire. Everyone on board perished. Captain Jones is remembered today for his commitment to his fellow man and his country.

Mr. Speaker, Captain James R. Jones is to be commended for his bravery, his fierce determination, and his patriotism. His self-sacrifice should be a testament to us all.

BEING BITTER AND ANGRY

(Mr. KINGSTON asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KINGSTON. Mr. Speaker, "Together We Can Do Better." That is the new motto of the Democrat Party. Well, you can judge the future by their past, and let us see how they did in the past.

Social Security, take an issue. What was their solution? Still waiting. No solution. Hello Democrat Party, put it on the board. You did not like our solution? What is your better solution?

Taxes? You do not like tax cuts. The government knows how to spend your money better than you do. And when tax revenues went up $94 billion because of our tax cuts creating new jobs, what did the Democrats have to say? We just do not like tax cuts.

Fiscal responsibility. Now they have a chance. We know in the Committee on Appropriations they have offered $61 billion in spending increases in the last 3 years. Now is their chance to show "we did not mean it." They can do better.

9/11, what was their response? Whining and pining and hand-wringing, saying, Why do they hate us? That is what we must find out.

Iraq, well, let us turn Iraq over to Cindy Sheehan. She should run our foreign policy.

Together we can do better? I think they ought to look at "together we can be bitter, bitter and angry."

DEFENDING CRITICISM AGAINST DEMOCRATS

(Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, I do not want the gentleman from Georgia to wonder all day about some of these things, so I have one answer and one correction.

Our response to 9/11, the gentleman's memory seems to be failing him, was to vote virtually unanimously with only one dissent to invade Afghanistan and put an end to that regime. I am sorry we were not able to catch Osama bin Laden. But I have heard few distortions as great as to say that our response to 9/11 was whatever he said. In fact, we all but one on this side voted to go to war in Afghanistan. Now, that may seem a triviality to him, but it seems to me that that was a very useful response.

Secondly, the gentleman wants to know what is our answer to Social Security. It is very simple: put the money back. If Social Security receives every dollar which has been paid into Social Security and the interest that it is legally entitled to receive on that, it is fully funded until sometime in the 2040s.

Now, having spent some of the Social Security surplus for the war in Iraq, for tax cuts for the very wealthy, the President now says, Well, those are just IOUs. We do not have the money.

But here is my answer: put the money back. If you just put the money back into Social Security, we will be okay.
